Bestseller Winner of the James Beard Award for General Cooking and the IACP Cookbook of the Year Award "The one book you must have, no matter what you're planning to cook or where your skill level falls."—New York Times Book Review Ever wondered how to pan-fry a steak with a charred crust and an interior that's perfectly medium-rare from edge to edge when you cut into it? How to make homemade mac 'n' cheese that is as satisfyingly gooey and velvetysmooth as the blue box stuff, but far tastier? How to roast a succulent, moist turkey (forget about brining!)—and use a foolproof method that works every time? As Serious Eats's culinary nerd-in-residence, J. Kenji López-Alt has pondered all these questions and more. In The Food Lab, Kenji focuses on the science behind beloved American dishes, delving into the interactions between heat, energy, and molecules that create great food. Kenji shows that often, conventional methods don't work that well, and home cooks can achieve far better results using new—but simple—techniques. In hundreds of easy-to-make recipes with over 1,000 full-color images, you will find out how to make foolproof Hollandaise sauce in just two minutes, how to transform one simple tomato sauce into a half dozen dishes, how to make the crispiest, creamiest potato casserole ever conceived, and much more.

An Indian middle-aged woman goes to a foreign country to help her young daughter deliver her first baby. She narrates interesting tales of her experience preparing for this 'big event' of childbirth and then actually going through it! The book talks about Indian traditional methods of using herbs with medicinal values and authentic recipes used during pregnancy and after delivery to help heal new moms and babies to thrive. The world has become a global village and young generations are crossing their country's boundaries to settle down away from their own roots to create a home away from home. The book will be a perfect reference book for new parents who desire to use traditional age-old methods to nurturer their new baby with simple daily massage/bathing techniques or for a grandma who wishes to try her hand at basic sewing techniques for her beloved grandbabies.
